

Guide to foreign investment in the PRC

Contents

Introduction

1 Foreign Investment

- Investment Sectors
- Investment Structures
- Approval Authorities and Key Legislation
- Foreign Exchange Control

2 Choosing Your Business Vehicle

- Equity Joint Ventures
- Cooperative Joint Ventures
- Wholly Foreign Owned Enterprises
- Foreign Invested Companies Limited by Shares
- Holding Companies
- Foreign Invested Domestic Companies
- Representative Offices
- Others: Branch Office and Contractual Cooperation Management Contracts

3 Setting Up a New Business Vehicle

- Project Approval Report
- Name Reservation
- Business Scope, Joint Venture Contract and Articles of Association
- Formal Establishment of an FIE
- Financing

4 Buying a Business in the PRC – Mergers and Acquisitions

- Governmental Approvals
- Buying Shares in a Listed PRC Company
- Structuring an Acquisition
- Other Issues

5 Directors and Governance

- Board of Directors
- Directors' Duties
- Board of Supervisors
- Senior Management
- Legal Representative
- Director and Officer Liability

6 The Business

- Exchange Controls and Remittance of Profits
- Human Resources
- Intellectual Property Rights, Technology and Trade Secrets
- Real Estate
- Taxes, Grants and Incentives

7 Other Legal Issues

- Language and Governing Law
- Dispute Resolution

Glossary

Appendix One

Foreign Investment by Industry

Appendix Two

Comparison of the Principal Forms of FIEs in the PRC

Appendix Three

Process for the Remittance of Profits