

Linklaters

Our offering in Brazil

Entre outras mil, és tu, Brasil.

One firm. One point of contact.

Thinking globally

Throughout our 175-year history, Linklaters has served the world's leading corporations and financial institutions and governments on significant deals in over 100 countries. Our more than 2,700 lawyers are geographically spread throughout our 29 offices. In addition, we have alliances with leading firms including Allens (in Australia) and Webber Wentzel (in South Africa), ideally placing us to help our clients wherever in the world they do business.

We apply consistent, global standards to all of our transactions. Irrespective of the location of the transaction or the lawyers involved, our clients are able to conduct their business effectively with our coordinated and streamlined approach.

Our team offers a compelling combination of technical skills, market knowledge, cultural awareness, linguistic capabilities and commercial judgment across the whole spectrum of corporate transactions.

We commit to building lasting relationships with our clients, providing a unified and transparent pricing structure to cross-border deals.

Committed to Brazil

We have had a permanent presence in Brazil since 1997 and have worked on Brazilian deals long before that. Members of the São Paulo team have lived and worked in Brazil for a significantly long time and are both familiar with and appreciative of the local business culture.

We consistently participate in ground-breaking Brazilian deals, which allows us to follow the exciting development of the market and to adapt as it changes.

We know Latin America

Our São Paulo office, together with our aligned Latin America group, which encompasses lawyers in several Linklaters' offices, has an unrivalled track record of advising Latin America's most prominent corporations and financial institutions and governments on their most challenging transactions and assignments.
